EXOTIC PARADISE

Claudia Caviezel's
luxuriant wallcovering
for a Shanghai fair is now looking for a new home

If you don't yet know the name of Swiss textile designer Claudia Caviezel, you should get acquainted with her stunning work as soon as possible. She has designed for top fabric companies such as Jakob Schlaepfer, and her work can be seen on the couture creations of Vivienne Westwood and Louis Vuitton among others. Her home collections of bed linen, cushions, kilims and rugs for Atelier Pfister further demonstrate her talent for multidisciplinary design.

As one of the winners of the recent Design Prize Switzerland-Edition 2013/14, Caviezel was invited to participate in the Westbund Art and Design Fair Shanghai, which took place in a vast renovated hangar at the former Longhua Airport in September 2014. For the fair she created the beautiful textile wallcovering Naturaleza, printed on Trevira CS by Mitlödi Textildruck AG in collaboration with Création Baumann, Switzerland. The 8 x 5 metre textile depicts an exotic paradise, a landscape of layered flowers, animals and foliage against a green background of giant sweeping brushstrokes.

The wallcovering stayed up at the Westbund venue until the end of October when it was shipped back to Switzerland. It is now looking for a new home. Sadly my house just doesn't have a wall big enough. L. U.
